COURT therein he was

The Declarations of Poniatowski has just published:
 dated "Warsaw, the 18th of 1814," attributing, from the personal observation of the Poles of Napoleon's sacrilegious Poniatowski's death. The most interesting part of this document is a full report very characteristic speech made by the prior to the Poles of Felch, with the effect of persuading them to abandon their act of returning to their own country, to go with him to France instead. We give the report in condensed form.
 "I have been told by the French of France, except the Dukes of Montpelier and Anzola, to leave him. He then addressed assembled Poles as follows:—"You are, he has just told me that you wish to return to your country. You are brave men, have done your duty to me, and I have more than twice to require of you, as a citizen of Europe (comme homme Européen), to stay in France. The Duchy of Warsaw is my blood, and I will not abandon it. Is the reason for your going to disturb you? He remains in my wish. He wanted to go with me." n ; I knew he was not the man for you. I wished to make Poland a kingdom, and I ained the consent of Austria by treaty ceding Galicia." If I had remained on Witebsk and Smoleusk, Poland had existed. I went too far: I said that Austria has turned her back on me during the last war; but she is a woman, she will change, and I know I perhaps your unhappy star-dow after it. But why should you lose confidence in me! On the 16th I won a battle, on the 18th I did not lose one, on the 19th I retired. Some sergeant blew up himself too soon, and I lost 13,000 men more. But even if I had lost the battle, what is our disadvantage? The man who stopped me this time, but I shall be back. I only wish they would burn two or three towns in Franco for me; such an act would bring me a million of soldiers; I would then, pursue them with my standards as far as the Vistula. You are dissatisfied because Poniatowski is not with you or dead, as you think; he is a prisoner; he is not dead. I am myself, I know Russia, and will conquer it.

if your Government had been more your. Your Finance Minister did some odd things, the Czartoryskis opposed me, your militia was a failure. There are 2,000 of you, so that from a military point of view you are of no assistance to brave as you are; yet I advise you for your own interests to stay with me. I will not leave the interior of France, and you horse and pay. I am determined to cease making war so long as my people shall require me to do so. I am an officer, unless, indeed, I meet with an early death. Peace will come, and then I will kill of you. Why did I not make peace yesterday? Because I did not want to go up the Duchy of Wratzau. That duchy is under the treaty of Tilsit, to which I hold, and you may depend upon it I will keep with you to the last. In any case I will look after each of you individually if you follow me. If you leave me I will not protect you, and you will be treated as deserters. What say you?" The Emperor then cast a penetrating glance at the men around him, and finding that the Poles hesitated, repeated some of the arguments he had used at last General Toom's camp. "Sir, we will go with you wherever." These words were repeated by most of the soldiers present, and Napoleon, with a look of intense satisfaction on his face, rode away amid loud cries of "Vive l'Empereur!"

GENERAL AVERAGE.
(Mitchell's Maritime Register.)
On Thursday, Aug. 15, a meeting took place at Albany, C. N. Y.

r the relative position of Underwriters Merchants in reference to the case of Johnston v. Jardine," recently decided by the Court of Common Pleas. As the proceedings extended to a considerable trial, and being a subject of much importance to our readers, we reserve the publication of a detailed report for our next number. The chair was taken by Mr. Jackson, F.R., and the following resolutions were agreed upon:

1. That, in the opinion of this meeting, it is not desirable that the responsibility of meeting General Average from the contributors to the same should fall upon the Underwriter.
2. That it is therefore advisable that policies of assurance should be so framed as to leave in case of any loss to the subject matter of insurance by a General Average no claim upon the other contributing interests to be recovered by the assured in General Average as heretofore.
3. That, in order to carry out the intention of "Dickinson v. Jardine," and to secure to preserve the legitimate rights of the Underwriter, it is advisable to insert in the policy a clause to the effect, "that in case of loss to the subject matter of insurance by a General Average the Underwriters thereon could pay the difference between any amount payable by other contributory interests and the insured value, except in those cases where the Underwriter is, by terms of the policy the events which have happened, free of any claim for Particular Average."
4. That in order to carry out the feeling of the meeting, the following clause be recommended for insertion in all policies:

red or destroyed by a General Average any claim the assured is entitled to in respect thereof, by way of General Average or total loss, shall be subject to deduction of the sum payable to the red by the other contributory interests in freight, and cargo.

5. That, in the opinion of this meeting, it is desirable that immediate steps should be taken to obtain an Act of Parliament for the purpose of more strictly defining and regulating the duty of the Shipowners &c.

General Average from the contributors and to distribute the same.

6. That the Right Hon. G. J. Goschen, Mr. William Simpson, Mr. Tozer, Mr. Dalry, Mr. Daniell, Mr. Norwood, Mr. Hubb, Mr. Harper, and Mr. Lodge, be appointed a committee (with power to add their number) to consider the means of giving practical effect to the foregoing resolutions.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

THIS Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and China as this fine and invigorating medicine. It is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climate will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of balsam whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cures after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climate of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as certain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treatment.

VII., for estimating prices, measurement of goods, exchanges, &c. have been selected from those constantly in use among the foreign merchants in China. Those for calculating the prices of tea in dollars or pence have been copied from the more extended tables, by the kind permission of the author, P. Loureiro, Esq. The last section of the same chapter, on "Movements in Bullion," has been prepared and furnished for the Guide by Patrick B. Harper, Esq., of the Commercial Bank of India at Hongkong, who has had much experience in the exchanges and movements of the precious metals in Eastern Asia."

"The Appendix of Sailing Directions has been reprinted from the 'China Pilot.' With short interruptions, the coast from Singapore to Hakodadi are all described in it; and for the Chinese coasts, the Directions have been improved by the insertion of the Chinese characters for the names of all places that could be ascertained."
